

Make your design so it fills up to the green line, we require the design to be bigger than the actual finished board to allow for printing and the snowboard making proses.

The snowboard outline shape is only there as a guide for you to see what will actually end up on the board and were in proportion to the inserts your design will be.

Please do not embed the snowboard shape in your design we need to remove it for printing.

